

Lectures Proposed by the Library Syndicate

MICHAELMAS 2008

LENT 2009

EASTER 2009

---

The University Library offers a user education programme open to all its readers. This includes sessions on the basic use of the Library, as well as seminars on subject specific resources and on making best use of electronic resources and datasets.

Full details are available on the Library's website at <http://www.lib.cam.ac.uk/Courses/> and on posters in the Library and distributed throughout the University.

Enquiries about the programme may be addressed to the Reference Department of the University Library (tel. 01223 333016/333066, e-mail: user-education@lib.cam.ac.uk).

SANDARS LECTURES IN BIBLIOGRAPHY

PROF. M. P. BROWN

The book and the transformation of Britain, c. 550–1050 M. Tu. Th. 5 (three lectures)

23 Feb. Conversion: the scribes of scripture and social change

24 Feb. Integration and consolidation: creating communities of reading

26 Feb. After Alfred: language, literature and libraries

Morison Room, University Library