NOTICES BY FACULTY BOARDS, ETC.

Annual meetings of the Faculties

Computer Science and Technology

The Chair of the Faculty Board of Computer Science and Technology gives notice that the Annual Meeting of the Faculty will be held at 2.15 p.m. on Tuesday, 8 November 2022 in Lecture Theatre 1 of the Department of Computer Science and Technology, the William Gates Building, JJ Thomson Avenue.

Included on the agenda will be the election of four members of the Board in class (c) to serve for four years from 1 January 2023, in accordance with the General Regulations for the Constitution of the Faculty Boards (Statutes and Ordinances, 2021, p. 621). Nominations, confirmed by the proposer and seconder, and for which the consent of the candidate must be obtained, should be emailed to the Secretary of the Faculty Board at departmental-secretary@cst.cam.ac.uk not later than Tuesday, 1 November 2022.

Music

The Chair of the Faculty Board of Music gives notice that the Annual Meeting of the Faculty will be held at 4.30 p.m. on Wednesday, 16 November 2022 at the Faculty of Music. Interested members should contact facultymanager@mus.cam.ac.uk for agendas.

The main business will be the election of two members of the Faculty Board in class (c), in accordance with the General Regulations for the Constitution of the Faculty Boards (Statutes and Ordinances, 2021, p. 621). Nominations, confirmed by the proposer and seconder, for which the consent of the candidate must be obtained, should reach the Secretary of the Faculty Board (Mr Alex Drury: facultymanager@mus.cam.ac.uk) no later than 9 a.m. on Monday, 7 November 2022. Notice of any other business should reach the Secretary by the same date.

Asian and Middle Eastern Studies Tripos, Parts IB and II, 2022–23

The Faculty Board of Asian and Middle Eastern Studies gives notice of the following options to be offered under Regulation 8 for Part IB and Part II of the Asian and Middle Eastern Studies Tripos in 2022–23. The Faculty reserves the right to withdraw any course that is undersubscribed. Where specific papers are not available students will be appropriately mentored in finding alternatives.

Unless otherwise specified, all papers consist of a three-hour examination.

PART IB

MES.21. Elementary Hindi language

This paper will consist of two parts: a written paper (70 marks) and an oral examination (30 marks). The written paper will consist of two sections: Section A will contain a text comprehension exercise in Hindi (20 marks) and a ‘fill in the blanks’ exercise to test students’ grammar (20 marks). Section B will contain a translation exercise from Hindi to English (15 marks) and a translation exercise from English to Hindi (15 marks).

The oral examination will consist of three sections. All timings are approximate and the oral examinations are recorded:

- (a) listening and comprehension test (10 marks);
- (b) role-play (10 marks);
- (c) discussion on a given topic (10 marks).

Five minutes will be given for part (a) of the oral examination and ten minutes in total will be given for Sections (b) and (c).

K.1. Modern Korean reading and writing

This paper consists of an oral examination (50%) and a written examination (50%). The written assessment comprises three sections: Section A tests candidates’ grammatical knowledge; Section B reading comprehension; and Section C writing ability in Korean.

PART II

C.13. Literary Chinese 3

This paper will contain three sections, all of which must be attempted. Section 1 will contain one or more passages from seen texts in literary Chinese for translation into English. Candidates may be asked to comment on the texts in question. Section 2 will contain unseen texts for translation into English. Section 3 is a comprehensive reading exercise. Candidates will be asked to answer questions, in English, on one or more unseen texts.

C.15. The Chinese tradition: Chinese art and visual culture

This paper will consist of twelve questions of which candidates will be required to answer three.

C.17. Modern Chinese literature

This paper will consist of two passages in Chinese for translation and comment, and six essay questions, of which two must be attempted.

C.18. China in a global WWII

This paper will consist of ten questions of which candidates will be required to answer three.

C.19. Chinese linguistics

This paper will consist of two passages in Chinese for translation into English, and six essay questions, of which two must be attempted. Candidates will be allowed to use copies of Chinese–Chinese dictionaries provided.

C.20. Contemporary Chinese society

This paper is divided into four parts, all of which must be attempted. Part 1 and Part 2 (each carrying 15 marks) will each consist of a Chinese-language passage. Candidates will be asked to summarise the passage briefly and answer a commentary question, both in English. Part 3 and Part 4 (each carrying 35 marks) will each consist of five essay questions, of which one question must be answered.

EAS.2. The East Asian region: the Cold War and its aftermath in East Asia

This paper will contain ten essay questions, of which candidates will be required to attempt three.

J.15. Modern Japanese cultural history

The coursework that constitutes this paper’s assessment will consist of one research essay, of between 6,000 and 7,500 words, including footnotes and excluding bibliography. Each student will develop the topic of the essay in consultation with the instructor. An outline plus a bibliography will be due at the beginning of Lent Term. Two hard copies and one electronic copy (pdf) of the research essay shall be submitted to the Programmes Administrator in the Faculty Office so as to arrive not later than the division of Full Easter Term.

J.17. Topics in modern Japanese history

The coursework that constitutes this paper's assessment consists of one research essay, of between 6,000 and 7,500 words, including footnotes and excluding bibliography. Each student will develop the topic of the essay in consultation with the instructor. Two hard copies and one electronic copy (pdf) of the research essay shall be submitted to the Programmes Administrator in the Faculty Office so as to arrive not later than the division of Full Easter Term.

J.19. Contemporary Japanese society

The coursework that constitutes this paper's assessment consists of one research essay, of between 6,000 and 7,500 words, including footnotes and excluding bibliography. Each student will develop the topic of the essay in consultation with the instructor. A one-page topic and paper outline plus a bibliography will be due during the first class session of Lent Term. Two hard copies of the research essay shall be submitted to the Programmes Administrator in the Faculty Office so as to arrive not later than the division of Full Easter Term.

J.20. Pre-modern Japanese literature and culture

The coursework that constitutes this paper's assessment will consist of one research essay, of between 6,000 and 7,500 words, including footnotes and excluding bibliography. Each student will develop the topic of the essay in consultation with the instructor. An outline plus a bibliography will be due at the beginning of Lent Term. Two hard copies and one electronic copy (pdf) of the research essay shall be submitted to the Programmes Administrator in the Faculty Office so as to arrive not later than the division of Full Easter Term.

K.2. Intermediate Korean

Students wishing to enrol in K2 would normally be expected either to have taken K1 or have a level of Korean language ability equivalent to that achieved from having taken K1. This paper consists of an oral examination (50%) and a written examination (50%). The written assessment comprises three sections: Section A tests candidates' grammatical knowledge; Section B reading comprehension; and Section C writing ability in Korean.

MES.38. History of the modern Middle East

This paper will consist of eight essay questions, of which candidates will be required to answer three. All questions will carry equal marks.

MES.39. Special subject in the pre-modern Middle East: Power, patronage and material culture in the Islamic world

This paper will consist of nine questions. Question 1 will be a series of images for analysis and discussion, of which candidates must choose three. Questions 2–9 will be essay questions. Candidates will be required to answer Question 1 and two questions chosen from Questions 2–9. All questions will carry equal marks.

MES.41. Comparative Semitic linguistics

This paper is assessed by a research essay of no more than 5,000 words, including footnotes and excluding bibliography. Each student will develop the research question of the essay in consultation with the instructor. Two hard copies and one electronic copy (pdf) of the project shall be submitted to the Programmes Administrator in the Faculty Office so as to arrive not later than the fourth Friday of Full Easter Term.

MES.42. Elementary Sanskrit

This paper will consist of four questions. Questions 1 to 3 will consist of a seen passage for translation into English (20 marks each) and grammar questions (5 marks each) on some of the forms found in the selected passage. Question 4 will consist of an unseen translation from Sanskrit into English for which a glossary will be provided (25 marks). All questions must be answered.

MES.43. Intermediate Hindi language

This paper will consist of two parts: a written paper (70 marks) and an oral exam (30 marks). The written paper will consist of two sections: Section A will contain two passages in Hindi to be translated into English (35 marks). Section B will contain two passages in English to be translated into Hindi (35 marks).

The oral examination will consist of three sections. All timings are approximate and the oral examinations are recorded:

- (a) listening and comprehension test (10 marks);
- (b) role-play (10 marks);
- (c) discussion on a given topic (10 marks).

Ten minutes in total will be given for Sections (b) and (c).

MES.44. Economy/culture in the Middle East and beyond

This paper is assessed by a research essay of 5,000 words, including footnotes and excluding bibliography, relating to a topic taught on the course and using anthropological sources and approaches as taught on the course. A two-page topic and paper outline will be due by 5 p.m. on the Monday of Lent Term Week 0, and should be sent to psa27@cam.ac.uk. Two hard copies and one electronic copy (pdf) of the project shall be submitted to the Programmes Administrator in the Faculty Office so as to arrive not later than the fourth Friday of Full Easter Term.
