

CHAPTER IX

FACULTIES, DEPARTMENTS, AND OTHER INSTITUTIONS UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF THE GENERAL BOARD

The provisions contained in this Chapter are Regulations of the General Board

GENERAL REGULATIONS FOR FACULTIES

1. There shall be a Faculty in respect of each of the subjects enumerated in the Schedule appended to these regulations.

Preliminary lists.

2. In October of every year, not later than the first day of Full Term, the Registry shall publish a preliminary list of the members of each Faculty.

Objections.

3. Objections to the inclusion or omission of any name may be addressed to the Secretary of the Board of the Faculty concerned, and shall be decided by that Board subject to an appeal to the General Board. Any such decision of a Faculty Board or the General Board shall be communicated to the objector and to the Registry forthwith.

Corrected lists.

4. As early as possible in the Michaelmas Term each year, and in any case not later than 28 October, the Secretary of the Board of each Faculty shall send to the Registry the names of persons who are members of the Faculty under Regulation 1(c) of the Regulations for Faculty Membership.

Promulgation of lists.

5. On the fifth weekday of November the Registry shall promulgate the lists of the Faculties, and the lists so promulgated shall constitute the several Faculties for the purpose of the annual meetings of the Faculties. Those meetings shall be held after the sixth day and before the twenty-fifth day of November. Between the promulgation of the lists and the end of the academic year the Registry shall not be required to ascertain or to notify any change that may occur in the membership of a Faculty.

Annual meetings.

6. In each year elections shall be held as necessary of members of Faculty Boards in category (ii) of class (a) and in classes (c) and (f), in accordance with the regulations for Classes of Faculty Board Membership, Elections, and Periods of Office. The names of the members elected shall be reported to the Registry forthwith.

Election of members of Faculty Boards.

7. In the exercise of their responsibility under Regulation 7 of the General Regulations for the Constitution of the Faculty Boards for preparing the teaching programme of the Faculty each Faculty Board shall either (a) invite to a conference at least once in each academic year the University officers and those granted affiliated titles in the Faculty, and, if they think fit, the lecturers whose lectures have in the previous academic year been included in the scheme of lectures under Regulation 8; or (b) delegate to Heads of Departments in the Faculty the responsibility for arranging similar conferences of lecturers within their Departments. If this alternative is followed, the Faculty Board shall at least once a year receive reports from Heads of Departments on the outcome of these conferences and shall decide whether they give rise to any questions which should be considered by a conference of lecturers in the Faculty as a whole.

Teaching programme.

8. Each Faculty Board shall be authorized to invite College teaching officers or other persons to give lectures or other instruction on subjects which fall within the province of the Board, and to include such lectures or other instruction in the teaching programme of the Faculty.

9. The General Board is authorized to sanction the announcement of lectures by Professors, Readers and Professors (Grade 11) in subjects which do not come within the scope of any Faculty Board.

FACULTY MEMBERSHIP

- 1. The members of each Faculty in any year shall be
- (a) those persons, giving instruction in a subject falling within the scope of the Faculty, who belong to any of the following classes, namely,
 - (i) University officers;
 - (ii) persons whose lectures or other instruction the Faculty Board has approved as part of the teaching programme of the Faculty for the current academic year, if they are (1) Heads or Fellows of Colleges or (2) persons employed by the University to undertake teaching or research;
 - (iii) persons who occupy in a College or in an Approved Society, as teachers of subjects falling within the scope of the Faculty, the position of Praelector, Lecturer, Assistant Lecturer, or Director of Studies;
 - (b) other persons or members of classes of persons approved for this purpose by Ordinance; and
 - (c) any other persons who may be appointed by the Faculty Board to be members of the Faculty until the next promulgation, or the next promulgation but one, of the list of the members of the Faculty.

Faculty members.

The Faculty Board concerned shall have power to decide whether a subject falls within the scope of the Faculty for the purpose of subsection (a) above, and whether the instruction given by a person is of such nature and quantity as to entitle them to be included as a member of the Faculty under that subsection. An appeal on any such question shall lie from the Faculty Board to the General Board, from whose decision there shall be no further appeal.

- 2. A list of the members of each Faculty shall be promulgated in each year on a day prescribed by Ordinance of the General Board. Objections to the inclusion or omission of any name shall be decided in such manner as may be prescribed by Ordinance of the General Board.

Promulgation of lists.

- 3. A person may be a member of more than one Faculty.

Chair.

- 4. The Chair of each Faculty shall be the person elected Chair of the Faculty Board.

- 5. There shall be an annual meeting of the members of each Faculty for the election of a member or members of the Faculty Board.

Election of
Faculty Boards.

- 6. In addition to the annual meeting, the Chair may summon a meeting of the Faculty whenever they think it desirable to do so. The Chair shall summon a meeting without delay upon receiving a written request signed by at least ten members of the Faculty.

- 7. At any election by a Faculty of a member of the Faculty Board nominations shall be made in writing and votes shall be taken by ballot.

- 8. At the annual meeting, and at any other meeting, of a Faculty there may be a discussion of any matter connected with the work of the Faculty that may be raised by any member of the Faculty after notice given to the members, or at the discretion of the Chair without notice. No resolution of a Faculty shall be binding on the Faculty Board.

CONSTITUTION OF THE FACULTY BOARDS

GENERAL REGULATIONS

- 1. Every Faculty Board shall include members in each of the following classes (a), (b), and (c):

Classes of Faculty Board
membership.

- (a) members in one or both of the following categories:

- (i) Heads of Departments within the Faculty;
- (ii) holders of Professorships or Clinical Professorships assigned to the Faculty or to a Department within the Faculty and of other offices specified in the Schedule to Special Ordinance C (vii) 1 which have been approved by Grace as qualifying their holders for membership in this category of a particular Faculty Board;

- (b) members appointed by the Council after consultation with the General Board;

- (c) members elected by the Faculty.

The General Board may make provision by Ordinance, on the recommendation of the Faculty Board, for the addition of members in the following classes:

- (d) members co-opted by the Faculty Board;
- (e) representatives of cognate studies and holders of specified offices;

(f) members elected by and from among eligible students as determined by Regulation of the General Board¹; provided that a member in class (f) shall cease to be a member if they cease to be an eligible student.

2. For every Faculty Board the number of members in each category of class (a) and the number of members in classes (b), (c), (d), (e), and (f) shall be determined by Regulation of the General Board on the recommendation of the Faculty Board; provided that

(a) the number of members in class (f) shall not be fewer than two, and

(b) at least one shall be a postgraduate registered student and at least one shall be in statu pupillari.

3. For every Faculty Board the General Board shall determine by Ordinance the period of membership of members in category (ii) of class (a) and of members in classes (b), (c), (d), and (f) and of representatives of cognate studies in class (e).

4. Each Faculty Board shall elect annually one of its members as Chair and, unless for a particular Faculty Board it is provided otherwise by Ordinance of the General Board, a Secretary; provided that no Board shall elect either as Chair or as Secretary a person who is a student in any Faculty.

5. A Faculty Board may make recommendations to the General Board for any changes which it considers desirable in the Ordinances for those examinations with which it is concerned.

6. Each Faculty Board shall submit to the General Board nominations of such examiners as it is required by Ordinance of the General Board to nominate.

7. Each Faculty Board shall be responsible to the General Board for ensuring the provision of appropriate instruction and adequate facilities for research in the subjects of the Faculty, for preparing the teaching programme of the Faculty, and for ensuring that the teaching given is of a high standard. For the discharge of these duties it shall be empowered:

(a) to make representations to the General Board concerning the resources needed by the Faculty for the support of its activities in teaching and research;

(b) to prescribe the subjects in which instruction is to be given in the teaching programme of the Faculty;

(c) to authorize courses of lectures and other instruction to be given by persons not holding University offices, under such conditions of remuneration as may be approved by the General Board;

(d) to report to the General Board if any University officer in the Faculty is not performing satisfactorily the duties of their office or is not fulfilling the conditions attaching to it.

8. The Secretary of each Faculty Board shall be responsible for the proper application of the funds available to the Faculty, other than those for which Heads of Departments are responsible under the provisions of Statute A V 17(c), for ensuring that the approved estimate of expenditure is not exceeded, and that the accounts are correctly maintained; provided always that if the General Board so requires these duties shall be assigned by the Faculty Board to some other person approved by the General Board.

9. Each Faculty Board shall submit to the General Board, in accordance with arrangements determined by Ordinance, estimates of annual expenditure for consideration by the Board in accordance with Statute A V 1(b).

10. A Faculty Board shall prepare any reports on the work of the Faculty which the General Board may require.

11. Under the provisions of Special Ordinance A (viii) 5(iii), the election of the Chairs and Secretaries of Faculty Boards, the co-optation of members of Faculty Boards, and the appointment (or nomination for appointment) of Examiners, Electors to Professorships, members of Faculties, members of Appointments or Selection Committees, and members of Degree Committees shall be reserved business in addition to the other matters listed under Special Ordinance A (viii) 5.

CLASSES OF FACULTY BOARD MEMBERSHIP, ELECTIONS, AND PERIODS OF OFFICE

1. Subject to the provisions of Regulations 2 and 3, the number of members in each category of class (a) and in classes (b), (c), (d), and (e) of each Faculty Board shall be that specified in Schedule I appended to these regulations. The number of members in class (f) shall be as determined by each Faculty Board in accordance with Regulation 2 of the General Regulations for the Constitution of the Faculty Boards.

2. The number of members in each category of class (a) of each Faculty Board shall be determined Class (a). as follows:

- (a) all Heads of Departments (if any) within a Faculty shall be members in category (i) of class (a);
- (b) unless there are more than five Departments within a Faculty, the total number of members in class (a) shall not exceed five;
- (c) when there are five or more than five Departments within a Faculty, there shall be no members in category (ii) of class (a);
- (d) when there are less than five Departments within a Faculty, the members in category (ii) shall be:
either all the persons eligible for membership of the Faculty Board in category (ii), provided that this would not increase the total number of members in class (a) to more than five;
or such number of persons as will bring that total number up to five, elected from among all the persons who are eligible for membership of the Faculty Board in that category by all those eligible persons, or in such other manner as may be approved by the General Board on the recommendation of the Faculty Board.

Offices (other than Professorships) specified in the Schedule to Special Ordinance C (vii) 1 which qualify their holders for membership in category (ii) of class (a) of a particular Faculty Board shall be those specified in Schedule II appended to these regulations.

3. The number of members in class (b) of each Faculty Board shall be two. Class (b).

4. The General Board shall determine for each Faculty Board, in consultation with any other Faculty Board or other body concerned, the cognate studies to be represented by members in class (e) and the method of appointment of those representatives, and shall specify the offices by virtue of which the holders shall be members in class (e). Details of the membership of Faculty Boards in class (e) shall be appended to these regulations as Schedule III. Class (e).

5. The elected members of each Faculty Board in category (ii) of class (a) shall serve for two years or four years, as the Faculty Board shall determine, from 1 January following their election. Periods of membership.

Members in class (b) shall serve for two years from 1 January following their appointment.

Members in class (c) shall serve for four years from 1 January following their election.

Members in class (d) shall serve for one year from 1 January following the date of their co-optation or for the remainder of the calendar year in which they are co-opted, as the Faculty Board shall determine.

Members in class (e) who are appointed as representatives of cognate studies shall serve for two years from 1 January following their appointment.

Members in class (f) shall serve from the date of their election until such date in the following year as shall be determined, in accordance with the regulations for the election of student members of Faculty Boards, as the day for the election of members in class (f), or until such earlier date as they may, under the provisions of Regulation 1 of the General Regulations for the Constitution of the Faculty Boards, cease to qualify for membership in class (f).

6. For each Faculty Board which includes members in category (ii) of class (a), an election of such members shall be held each year, if necessary, on a date between the sixth and the twenty-fifth day of November. Such an election shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of Regulation 2(d) above. Election of members in class (a)(ii).

7. For each Faculty Board an election of members in class (c) shall be held each year at the annual meeting of the Faculty. The procedure for the election of members in class (c) shall be that prescribed in the Single Transferable Vote Regulations, except that the returning officer shall be the Chair of the Faculty or in the Chair's absence a deputy appointed by the Chair subject to the approval of the General Board; provided that, in order to secure the representation of Departments within the Faculty or of institutions associated with the Faculty, the Faculty may from time to time determine that some or all of the candidates for election shall be nominated in accordance with a procedure approved by the General Board on the recommendation of the Faculty. in class (c).

8. If a casual vacancy occurs in class (c), the Faculty Board shall be empowered to co-opt a member to fill the vacancy from the date of its occurrence until the end of the calendar year or, if the vacancy occurs between the annual meeting of the Faculty and 31 December, until the end of the following calendar year; and at the next annual meeting of the Faculty a member shall be elected to serve for the remaining complete years (if any) of the period of tenure of their predecessor. Casual vacancies.

9. For each Faculty Board members in class (f) shall be drawn from the students elected as subject representatives in that Faculty (or exceptionally, with the approval of the Registry in an individual case, from those eligible to stand for election as subject representatives in that Faculty), in accordance with the regulations for the election of student subject representatives.

ELECTION OF STUDENT SUBJECT REPRESENTATIVES

Amended by Notice (Reporter, 2023–24, p. 474)

Application of regulations.

- 1. These regulations shall apply to the election of subject representatives who are eligible to serve on each Faculty Board or other University body whose membership includes student members, except in so far as may be provided otherwise in the special regulations for a particular Faculty Board or other body.

Eligibility.

- 2. (a) The persons eligible to vote and to stand for election as subject representatives shall be those who are certified by the Registry to be matriculated students pursuing a given course of study or research leading to a degree, diploma or certificate of the University, as identified by Notice under Regulation 4. Any question of interpretation of eligibility shall be determined by the Registry, whose decision shall be final.

(b) The Registry shall not include in the electoral roll the name of any sabbatical officer of the University of Cambridge Students' Union who has, before completing a course of study leading to the degree for which they intend to be a candidate, been given an allowance under Regulation 1(b) for Allowances to Candidates for Examinations for the purpose of holding such office.

Election procedure.

- 3. An election for each subject representative shall be held in each academic year as outlined in the electoral scheme published by the Union on its website. Voting shall be by ballot. The date and procedure of the election, the final date for the receipt of nominations, and the hours of voting shall be determined by the returning officer identified in the Union's electoral scheme.

4. The University of Cambridge Students' Union shall publish a Notice confirming

- (a) not later than 20 October each year, the subject representative roles for which elections will be held and the total number of vacancies. This Notice shall confirm by course the students who are eligible to stand for election to, and vote for, each of the subject representatives;
- (b) the returning officer appointed by the Council¹ on the nomination of the University of Cambridge Students' Union;
- (c) the location on the website of the University of Cambridge Students' Union of the electoral scheme governing the elections.

Electoral roll.

- 5. Not later than the Division of the Michaelmas Term, the Registry shall send to the returning officer an electoral roll of all the persons who on the first day of Michaelmas Term were eligible, under the provisions of Regulation 1 of the General Regulations for the Constitution of the Faculty Boards and of these regulations, to vote and to stand as candidates in the election. The roll shall be undivided, and the returning officer shall confer eligibility corresponding to the categories determined in accordance with Regulation 2. The Registry shall have power, on the recommendation of the returning officer, to amend the roll at any time before the time fixed for the start of voting.

Unfilled vacancies.

- 6. If at any election of a student subject representative the total number of vacancies is not filled, the returning officer may fix a date for the holding of a further election to fill those vacancies. Unless the returning officer determines otherwise, the persons eligible to vote and to stand as candidates in such an election shall be those persons who were so eligible in the preceding election; provided that no such person may vote or be a candidate in a further election if the Registry certifies that they are no longer entitled to be included in the relevant electoral roll.

Casual vacancies.

- 7. If a casual vacancy occurs, the returning officer shall determine whether a bye-election shall be held to fill the vacancy and shall determine the date on which any such election is to be held. Unless the returning officer determines otherwise, the persons eligible to vote and to stand as candidates in a bye-election shall be those persons who were eligible at the time of the last preceding annual election to vote and to stand as candidates in the election to the place which has been vacated, provided that no such person may vote or be a candidate in a bye-election if the Registry certifies that they are no longer entitled to be included in the relevant electoral roll.

Acting Heads of Departments.

4. The General Board, on the recommendation of the Faculty Board or other authority concerned, shall appoint a person to be Acting Head of a Department during any period of absence from duty of the Head of that Department, or during any period when there is a vacancy in an office whose holder is ex officio Head of the Department. A person so appointed shall be recognized as Head of the Department for all purposes.

Deputy Heads of Departments.

5. The General Board shall have power to establish one or more Deputy Headships in any Department specified by them and, at the request of the Head of such a Department and after consultation with the relevant Faculty Board or other authority, to appoint one or more Deputy Heads of that Department. A person appointed Deputy Head shall hold office for a period of not more than three years at a time, and shall be eligible for reappointment. The duties and powers of each Deputy Head appointed under this regulation shall be determined by the General Board after consultation with the Head of the Department.

SPECIAL REGULATIONS FOR FACULTIES AND DEPARTMENTS

Astronomy.

INSTITUTE OF ASTRONOMY

1. The Institute of Astronomy, incorporating the Newall Observatory and the Solar Physics Observatory, shall be a Department within the Faculty of Physics and Chemistry.

Director and Head.

2. Appointments and reappointments to the University office of Director of the Institute of Astronomy shall be made by the General Board, on the recommendation of the Faculty Board of Physics and Chemistry, from among the University officers engaged in teaching and research in the Institute. Appointments and reappointments shall be for periods not exceeding five years at a time, save that in a particular case the General Board shall have power, after consulting the Faculty Board, to make an appointment for a period not exceeding ten years at a time. The Director shall be the Head of the Department ex officio.

Advisory Committee.

3. The Professor of Astrophysics shall be Director of the Solar Physics Observatory ex officio.

4. There shall be a Departmental Advisory Committee of the Institute consisting of:

(a) the Head of the Department, who shall be the Chair;

(b) the Plumian Professor of Astronomy and Experimental Philosophy, and the Professor of Astrophysics, who shall be members ex officio;

(c) three University officers in the Institute elected by a body consisting of all the members of the Faculty of Physics and Chemistry who have been designated for the purpose by the Board of that Faculty on the nomination of the Departmental Advisory Committee.

Duties.

Elections of members in class (c) shall be held annually before the end of the Michaelmas Term and shall be in accordance with a procedure determined from time to time by a meeting of those entitled to vote. One member shall be elected in every calendar year of which the number is odd, and two members in every calendar year of which the number is even. A member elected shall serve for the two calendar years next ensuing, provided that if they cease to be a member of the Faculty they shall thereupon cease to be a member of the Departmental Advisory Committee.

5. The Committee shall advise the Head of the Department at least once a term on matters concerning the teaching, research, and administration within the Institute.

6. The Secretary of the Institute of Astronomy shall act as Secretary of the Committee and as Secretary of the Faculty Board of Physics and Chemistry.

Visiting Fellowships

Purpose.

1. In order to enable scholars from outside Cambridge to take part in and contribute to the work of the Institute of Astronomy, there shall be Visiting Fellowships for persons who have made important contributions to the study of astronomy.

FITZWILLIAM MUSEUM

Fitzwilliam
Museum.

Constitution

The Fitzwilliam Museum shall be an institution independent of any Faculty or Department but under the supervision of the General Board. It shall be under the general control of the Fitzwilliam Museum Syndicate.

Fitzwilliam Museum Syndicate

1. The Fitzwilliam Museum Syndicate shall consist of:

Syndicate.

- (a) the Vice-Chancellor (or a duly appointed deputy) as Chair;
- (b) eight persons appointed by the General Board;
- (c) the Head of the Department of History of Art;

Fitzwilliam
Museum.

- (d) not more than four persons co-opted by the Syndicate, provided that it shall not be obligatory for the Syndicate to co-opt any person or persons.

Members in class (b) shall be appointed in the Michaelmas Term to serve for four years from 1 January following their appointment. Co-opted members shall serve for one year from 1 January following their co-optation.

2. All meetings of the Syndicate shall be summoned by the Vice-Chancellor, and there shall be at least four meetings each year.

3. No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless at least four members be present, but in cases of emergency a smaller number may act, provided they be unanimous.

- 4. It shall be the duty of the Syndicate:

- (a) to supervise the management of the Museum;
- (b) to make such arrangements as they may from time to time think desirable for the delivery of lectures or the holding of classes, meetings, exhibitions (with or without charge for admission as the Syndicate shall think fit), or other assemblies in the Museum;
- (c) to appoint and dismiss the assistant staff subject to the regulations for employment by the University;
- (d) to control the expenditure of all moneys devoted to the purposes of the Museum, and to present an annual statement of accounts to the Finance Committee of the Council;
- (e) to decide, after consultation with the Director, when gifts or bequests are offered to the University for the Museum, or objects offered to the Museum for purchase, whether such offers shall be accepted or declined, or whether the question shall be referred to the University and on such other matters as the General Board may require;
- (f) to report to the University at any time on any question on which they think the University ought to be consulted;
- (g) to make an Annual Report to the General Board upon any matters concerning the collections and the state of the buildings which in their opinion should be brought to the notice of the University;
- (h) to be responsible in accordance with the regulations for the Hamilton Kerr Institute for the examination and certification of persons training in the Hamilton Kerr Institute.

Annual Report.

5. There shall be an Advisory Council for the Hamilton Kerr Institute, which shall be a sub-committee of the Fitzwilliam Museum Syndicate. Its duty shall be to advise the Directors of the Fitzwilliam Museum and the Institute on the most advantageous lines of developing the work of the Institute, and to promote co-operation with other bodies concerned with the conservation of paintings. The Advisory Council shall consist of:

- (a) a member of the Fitzwilliam Museum Syndicate appointed by the Syndicate as Chair of the Advisory Council;
- (b) the Director of the Fitzwilliam Museum;
- (c) two persons appointed by the General Board of the University;
- (d) not less than four nor more than eight persons appointed by the Fitzwilliam Museum Syndicate, at least two of whom shall be Fellows of the International Institute for Conservation and at least one of whom shall be the holder of a University office in the Department of History of Art;
- (e) not more than three persons co-opted by the Advisory Council, provided that it shall not be obligatory for the Council to co-opt any person or persons.

Members in classes (c) and (d) shall be appointed in the Michaelmas Term to serve for four years from 1 January next following their appointment. Members in class (e) shall serve until 31 December of the year in which they are co-opted, or of the following year, as the Council shall determine at the time of their co-optation.

The Advisory Council shall meet at least twice a year; five members shall constitute a quorum at any meeting. The Director of the Institute shall act as Secretary of the Council, and shall transmit a record of the Council's proceedings to the Fitzwilliam Museum Syndicate.

Staff of the Fitzwilliam Museum

Amended following the approval of Grace 2 of 12 June 2024

- 1. The staff of the Fitzwilliam Museum shall consist of the Director and Marlay Curator, the Assistant Directors, the Senior Keepers, the Keepers, the Senior Assistant Keepers, the Assistant Keepers, the Museum Assistants in Research, and the University assistants. The Fitzwilliam Museum

Syndicate shall designate one of the Senior Keepers or Keepers as Librarian. The total number of University offices of Assistant Director, Senior Keeper, Keeper, Senior Assistant Keeper, Assistant Keeper, and Museum Assistant in Research and the number of offices in each of those categories shall be determined from time to time by the General Board. The number of University assistants shall be determined from time to time in accordance with the regulations for employment by the University.

2. The Director shall be elected by a Board of Electors consisting of

- (a) the Vice-Chancellor (or a duly appointed deputy);
- (b) three persons appointed by the General Board of whom at least one shall be a person who at the time of their appointment is not resident in the University or officially connected with it;
- (c) four persons appointed by the Fitzwilliam Museum Syndicate of whom three shall be persons who at the time of their appointment are members of that Syndicate, and the fourth shall be a person who at the time of their appointment is the Director of one of the following: the British Museum, the National Gallery, the Victoria and Albert Museum, the Wallace Collection, the Ashmolean Museum;

(d) one person appointed by the Faculty Board of Architecture and History of Art.

Members in classes (b)–(d) shall be appointed in the Michaelmas Term of each calendar year of which the number is even to serve for the four calendar years next ensuing.

The Academic Secretary, or a deputy appointed by the Academic Secretary, shall act as Secretary to the Board of Electors.

3. If an Elector is or becomes a candidate for the Directorship they shall be thereby disqualified from acting in the matter of that election and the remaining Electors shall have power to act.

4. If an appointment to the Board of Electors is made after the Electors have first met to consider a vacancy in the Directorship, the Elector so appointed shall not have any vote in the election of the Director, but their predecessor, if not a candidate for the Directorship, shall retain the right to vote in that election.

5. When the Vice-Chancellor knows that a vacancy has occurred or will occur in the Directorship, the Vice-Chancellor shall report the fact to the General Board at its next meeting.

6. Not later than the sixtieth day after the report under Regulation 5 of a vacancy or an expected vacancy in the Directorship, the Vice-Chancellor shall publish a Notice inviting applications to fill the vacancy; provided that the General Board shall have power to suspend the publication of such a Notice for any period not exceeding one year.

7. The Electors shall have power to act notwithstanding one or more vacancies in their number and shall have power to adjourn and generally to regulate their own procedure, provided that:

- (a) no election shall be made earlier than the day following that on which the qualifications of the candidates have been considered in the first instance at a meeting of the Electors;
- (b) no election shall be made unless two-thirds at least of the Electors (exclusive of any Elector disqualified by being a candidate) are present at the time of voting and a majority of those present vote in favour.

8. The Electors shall have power to enquire whether any person or persons other than those who have submitted applications would accept the office if offered, and to offer the office to a person who has not submitted an application, provided that such a person's qualifications have been considered at two meetings held on different days.

9. If, at the end of two years from the date of publication under Regulation 6 of the Notice inviting applications for the Directorship, the Electors have been unable to make an election, the Director shall be appointed by the Chancellor, or, if the office of Chancellor is vacant, by the High Steward.

10. The duties of the Director shall be:

- (a) to take charge of the collections and the library, to keep a register of all accessions to the collections, and to take measures under the sanction of the Syndicate that they be properly protected, kept in order, and exhibited;
- (b) to exercise a general superintendence over the staff of the Museum, and to see that all rules laid down by the Syndicate are carried out;
- (c) to undertake and superintend, under the sanction of the Syndicate, and with such assistance as they may think necessary, the formation of inventories and catalogues of the collections;
- (d) to give, so far as is consistent with the performance of the above duties, assistance and guidance to persons visiting the Museum for purposes of study;

(e) to make inquiries and give advice respecting acquisitions for the Museum by purchase, donation, or bequest.

11. The Director shall be a member of the Faculty of Architecture and History of Art.

12. The Director shall be resident in the University during term and for four weeks in the Long Vacation, and shall normally be in attendance during Museum office hours. The Director shall not be absent for more than two nights in any week during Full Term without obtaining the permission of the Chair of the Syndicate. The Director shall nominate to the Syndicate a member of the staff of the Museum to act for the time being as their deputy during any period of absence from duty in circumstances not provided for by Statutes or Ordinance.

13. At the first meeting of the Syndicate in the Michaelmas Term of each year the Director shall make a report to the Syndicate on their residence and attendance during the preceding year. The report shall indicate the number of weeks during which the Director was resident in the University, and shall state whether they complied with the provisions of Regulation 12 concerning attendance at the Museum.

14. The Assistant Directors, the Senior Keepers, the Keepers, the Senior Assistant Keepers, the Assistant Keepers, and the Museum Assistants in Research (including the Librarian) shall give such assistance in the work of the Museum as the Director may require. They shall be expected to attend (during each weekday) at such times as may be determined by the Syndicate.

15. Appointments and reappointments to an office of Assistant Director, of Senior Keeper, and of Keeper shall be made by an Appointments Committee consisting of the following persons:

(a) the Vice-Chancellor (or a duly appointed deputy) as Chair;

(b) the Chair of the Fitzwilliam Museum Syndicate;

(c) the Director of the Fitzwilliam Museum;

(d) two members of the Fitzwilliam Museum Syndicate appointed by the Syndicate;

(e) two persons appointed by the General Board.

Special Ordinance C (x) shall apply to the Committee as if it were a Selection Committee for a Faculty. The quorum for the Committee shall be five members.

Appointments and reappointments to the offices of Senior Keeper and of Keeper shall be made by the Appointments Committee on the recommendation of an Appointing Panel, which shall consist of the Chair of the Appointments Committee or a member of the Appointments Committee appointed by the Chair as their deputy, who shall be Chair of the Panel, the Director of the Fitzwilliam Museum, the Assistant Director of the Fitzwilliam Museum with oversight of the office or the Director of the Hamilton Kerr Institute (as appropriate), and a person with relevant expertise and experience appointed by the Chair. For such appointments and reappointments, the Appointments Committee may reach their decision by circulation with a quorum of five members; written reports of decisions taken by circulation shall be minuted at a subsequent meeting of that Committee.

Appointments and reappointments to the offices of Senior Assistant Keeper, Assistant Keeper, and Museum Assistant in Research, and offices at the Hamilton Kerr Institute under Regulation 7 shall be made in accordance with the arrangements agreed from time to time by the competent authority.¹

A Museum Assistant in Research shall not engage in teaching other than teaching given on behalf of the University or a College or Colleges. The amount of teaching given by a Museum Assistant in Research on behalf of a College or Colleges shall not exceed six hours a week.

Admission to the Fitzwilliam Museum

Galleries.

1. The galleries shall, unless the General Board on the recommendation of the Fitzwilliam Museum Syndicate determines otherwise, be open to the public on each weekday (with the exception of Mondays other than Bank Holidays and such other exceptions as are mentioned hereafter in these regulations) between the hours of 10 a.m. and 5 p.m., and on Sundays between noon and 5 p.m.

Exclusion.

2. The Syndicate shall have full authority to direct the exclusion of those persons whose admission appears to be undesirable.

3. The Museum shall be closed on the following days: 24, 25, 26, and 31 December and 1 January and such other days as may appear necessary to the Syndicate.

4. The Syndicate shall from time to time make such rules as they think fit for the use of the library and for the inspection and study of the reserve and special collections.

KETTLE'S YARD COMMITTEE

1. Kettle's Yard shall be an institution independent of any Faculty or Department but under the supervision of the General Board. It shall be under the general control of the Kettle's Yard Committee.

2. The Kettle's Yard Committee shall consist of:

- (a) the Vice-Chancellor (or a duly appointed deputy) as Chair;
- (b) five members appointed by the General Board, three of whom shall be members of the Senate and the remainder external members, two of the five on the nomination of the Fitzwilliam Museum Syndicate and one on the nomination of the Finance Committee of the Council;
- (c) the Director of the Fitzwilliam Museum (or a deputy);
- (d) the Chair of the Music Sub-committee;
- (e) the Head of the Department of History of Art;
- (f) one registered student appointed by the General Board to serve for the academic year following that in which the appointment is made;
- (g) not more than four persons co-opted by the Committee, at least one of whom shall be a person with expertise as a professional artist.

3. Members in class (b) shall be appointed in the Michaelmas Term to serve for three years from 1 January following their appointment, followed by the option of reappointment for an additional three-year period. Co-opted members shall serve until 31 December of the year in which they are co-opted or of the following year as the Committee shall determine at the time of their co-optation. The Secretary of the Committee shall be appointed by the Registry.

4. Seven members of the Committee shall form a quorum, except when the Committee meets outside Full Term, when five members of the Committee shall form a quorum.

5. There shall be a Music Sub-committee, responsible to the Kettle's Yard Committee. The Sub-committee shall consist of:

- (a) a Chair who shall be appointed by the Kettle's Yard Committee;
- (b) a member of the Faculty of Music appointed by the Faculty Board of Music;
- (c) one registered student appointed by the Kettle's Yard Committee to serve for the academic year following that in which the appointment is made;
- (d) not more than three persons co-opted by the Sub-committee in the Michaelmas Term to serve for two years from 1 January following their appointment.

6. The Secretary of the Kettle's Yard Committee shall act as secretary of the Music Sub-committee. There shall be a Music Secretary who may be paid an honorarium, the amount of which shall be approved by the Kettle's Yard Committee.

7. An Honorary Curator of the Collection may be appointed by the members of the Kettle's Yard Committee in classes (a)–(d) and (f).

8. There shall be a University office of Director of Kettle's Yard and such number of University offices of Assistant to the Director as shall be determined from time to time by the General Board on the recommendation of the Kettle's Yard Committee. The Director shall be a member of the Faculty of Architecture and History of Art.

9. Appointments and reappointments to the offices of Director and Assistant to the Director shall be made by an Appointments Committee consisting of:

- (a) the Chair of the Kettle's Yard Committee as Chair;
- (b) the Director of the Fitzwilliam Museum;
- (c) two members appointed by the General Board;
- (d) four members appointed by the Kettle's Yard Committee.

Members in classes (c) and (d) shall be appointed in the Michaelmas Term of each year of which the number is even, to serve for the two calendar years next ensuing.

10. The duties of the Director and the Assistants to the Director shall be determined by the Kettle's Yard Committee, subject to the approval of the General Board.

11. It shall be the main purpose of the Committee to ensure that the Kettle's Yard Collection is available not only to members of the University, especially registered students, but also to the public, in such ways as to develop and improve the knowledge, understanding, enjoyment, and practice of the visual arts and to increase their general accessibility.

Kettle's Yard.
Purpose and duties of the Committee.

In particular the Committee shall have the following duties:

- (a) to supervise the maintenance and security of the Collection of paintings, bronzes, and other works of art at Kettle's Yard; to make such rules for admission to the Collection or for the loan of items from the Collection as may appear to them to be desirable; to arrange the programme of exhibitions to be held in the Exhibitions Gallery; and to make arrangements as they may from time to time think fit for holding meetings and other assemblies at Kettle's Yard;
- (b) to administer the Kettle's Yard Fund and the Exhibitions Account;
- (c) to decide whether to accept, decline, or refer to the General Board for decision, gifts, bequests, or objects offered for purchase, for the benefit of the Collection;
- (d) to report to the General Board at any time on questions on which they think the General Board ought to be consulted;
- (e) to report to the General Board annually in the Michaelmas Term on the condition of the Collection and the state of the buildings, and on the exhibitions, concerts, and other events held during the preceding academic year and on such other matters as the General Board may require;
- (f) to consult with the Fitzwilliam Museum Syndicate from time to time regarding matters of mutual concern;
- (g) to decide on the sale of any of the items in the Collection without impairing the general nature of the Collection, using the proceeds of any such sale for the benefit of the Collection.

12. The provisions of Special Ordinance A (viii) 5 concerning reserved business shall apply to the Kettle's Yard Committee and the Music Sub-committee as if these bodies were bodies constituted by Statute.

Constitution

The University Library and the affiliated libraries shall jointly constitute an institution under the supervision of the General Board. The affiliated libraries shall be those listed in the Schedule to these regulations as may be amended by the General Board from time to time.

Library Syndicate

1. The Library Syndicate shall consist of:

- (a) the Vice-Chancellor (or a duly appointed deputy), who shall be Chair;
- (b) two persons appointed by the Council, who shall be appointed in the Michaelmas Term to serve for two years from 1 January following;
- (c) eight persons appointed by the General Board, who shall be appointed in the Michaelmas Term to serve for four years from 1 January following;
- (d) two persons elected from among their own number by the holders of University offices in the University Library, who shall be elected in the Michaelmas Term to serve for two years from 1 January following;
- (e) the Chairs of each of the Sub-syndicates and the Medical Library Policy Advisory Group, if not members in any other class;
- (f) not more than four persons co-opted by the Syndicate;
- (g) not more than two registered students co-opted by the Syndicate. Members in classes (f) and (g) shall serve until 31 December of the year following that in which they are co-opted, provided that if a member in class (g) ceases to be a registered student they shall thereupon cease to be a member in that class.

Library
Syndicate.

2. All meetings of the Syndicate shall be summoned by the Vice-Chancellor; there shall be at least one and normally two meetings each term.

3. No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless at least four members are present.

Committee for the University Library, and the co-optation of members of the Syndicate in class (f) shall be reserved business.

Duties and powers.

5. (a) The Syndicate shall supervise the management of the University Library.

(b) There shall be such Sub-syndicates as the Library Syndicate shall consider necessary and listed in the Schedule to these regulations. There shall be a Medical Library Policy Advisory Group. Through the agency of the Sub-syndicates and the Policy Advisory Group, the Syndicate shall supervise the management of the affiliated libraries.

(c) The Syndicate shall supervise the custody and arrangement of the University Archives.

6. (a) The Syndicate shall do all such things as in their opinion are necessary or expedient for the regulation, security, and improvement of the University Library and the affiliated libraries. They shall exercise a general oversight over all matters relating to the administration, staffing, and financial resources of these libraries, and shall be empowered to make recommendations to the General Board about the staff, accommodation, and equipment needed for their proper functioning.

(b) In the exercise of their power of making rules for the management of the Library, the Syndicate shall have power to approve, through the agency of the Sub-syndicates and Medical Library Policy Advisory Group, rules for the use of the affiliated libraries.

(c) The following affiliated libraries shall continue to receive printed material received under the Legal Deposit Libraries Act 2003: the Betty and Gordon Moore Library, the Medical Library, and the Squire Law Library.

Reports.

7. The Syndicate shall make an Annual Report to the General Board, and such other reports to the University as they shall think fit.

Sub-syndicates and Policy Advisory Group.

8. (a) Each Sub-syndicate and the Medical Library Policy Advisory Group shall include at least one member appointed by the following bodies: the Library Syndicate; the General Board; and each Faculty Board with an interest in the libraries falling within its remit. Each shall elect a Chair from among its own members.

(b) No business shall be transacted at any meeting of a Sub-syndicate and Policy Advisory Group unless at least four members are present.

(c) The provisions of Special Ordinance A (viii) 5 concerning reserved business shall apply to each of the Sub-syndicates and Policy Advisory Group as if it were a body constituted by Statute; the election of the Chair and the co-optation of members of each Sub-syndicate shall also be reserved.

(d) The Librarian or a deputy appointed by the Librarian shall act as Secretary of each Sub-syndicate and Policy Advisory Group.

Duties.

9. In respect of each of the affiliated libraries the relevant Sub-syndicate or Policy Advisory Group shall have the following duties:

(a) to co-ordinate policies between the University Library and the affiliated libraries;

(b) to submit recommendations to the Library Syndicate concerning the location in the affiliated library of library material received under the Legal Deposit Libraries Act (for those libraries where this is appropriate);

(c) on behalf of the Library Syndicate, and subject to their approval, to make rules for the use of the affiliated libraries;

(d) to oversee appropriate co-ordination of library services and resources in respect of teaching, learning, and research in connection with the relevant Faculties and Departments with which the libraries are associated.

Constitution.Staff of the University Library and the affiliated libraries

1. The staff of the University Library, including for this purpose the affiliated libraries, shall consist of the Librarian, the Deputy Librarian, the Senior Under-Librarians, the Under-Librarians, the Assistant Under-Librarians, the Assistant Library Officers, the Graduate Trainees, the holders of such other offices as may be established in the Library from time to time, and the University assistants.

Designated offices.

2. (a) This staff shall include officers designated by the Library Syndicate, on the recommendation of the Librarian.

(b) In addition to the officers specified in sub-paragraph (a) above, the Library Syndicate, on the recommendation of the Librarian, may also designate other officers for duties in any of the affiliated libraries.

(c) The Library Syndicate may make appointments to such University offices of Curator as may be approved by the General Board, and may appoint such Honorary Keepers as they themselves think fit.

3. The number of University offices of Deputy Librarian, Senior Under-Librarian, Under-Librarian, Assistant Under-Librarian, and Assistant Library Officer shall be determined from time to time by the General Board on the recommendation of the Library Syndicate. The number of University assistants shall be determined from time to time in accordance with the regulations for employment by the University.

4. Appointments and reappointments to a University office on the staff of the University Library, other than the office of Librarian or an office of Curator, shall be made in accordance with the arrangements agreed from time to time by the competent authority.

5. The Syndicate shall have power to appoint the Deputy Librarian to be Acting Librarian during any period of absence from duty of the Librarian, or during any period when there is a vacancy in the office of Librarian.

6. It shall be the duty of the Librarian:

- (a) subject to the direction of the Library Syndicate, to be responsible for the management and leadership of the University Library and the affiliated libraries;
- (b) to perform, in relation to the University Library and the affiliated libraries, the duties assigned to the Head of a Department by A V 17(b) and (c);
- (c) to act as the General Board's principal adviser on matters relating to libraries.

7. The holders of other University offices on the staff of the University Library and the affiliated libraries shall assist the Librarian and shall carry out their duties in accordance with such directions as may be issued from time to time by the Syndicate or the Sub-syndicate concerned, as the case may be.

8. The stipend, if any, of a Curator appointed under Regulation 2(c) shall be determined from time to time by the General Board on the recommendation of the Library Syndicate. The tenure of such an office and its duties shall be determined by the Syndicate.

9. Subject to the approval of the Syndicate, the Librarian shall assign to the University assistants their several duties.

Opening and closing.

Use of the University Library¹

1. Except on the days on which it is to be closed under Regulations 2 and 3, the Library shall be open for at least four hours on Saturdays and at least six hours on other days. Subject to this regulation the hours of opening may be determined from time to time by the Syndicate.

2. The Library shall be closed on the following days:

Sundays throughout the year;

Christmas Eve and the following days up to and including the New Year public holiday;

Good Friday and the three following days;

the August Bank Holiday.

3. The Library shall be closed for the second full week (Monday to Saturday) of September, for the purpose of an annual inspection and the preparation of lists of missing books. No books shall be taken out of the Library during this period.

4. The Library shall be open to all members of the University on the production of either a University Card, which has been registered by the University Library, or a valid Reader's Card, which shall be issued on request. Use of these cards shall be recorded, when readers enter and leave the Library, to provide statistical information on the use of the Library by different categories of user. These cards are not transferable and must be shown on request to any member of the Library staff in the proper discharge of their duties. In addition the Syndicate shall have power to determine by rules what other persons may be admitted and upon what terms. The Syndicate shall have absolute discretion to direct the exclusion, either indefinitely or for a specified period, of any person whose admission is considered prejudicial to the interests of the Library or its users.

5. (1) Not more than twenty volumes may be borrowed by the following persons: members of the Senate; University staff; Fellows of Colleges; honorary graduates of the University; Bachelors of Medicine and Bachelors of Surgery; students, other than Affiliated Students, who are graduates of this or any other university and who are following a course of study leading to a Tripos examination, or to a degree, diploma, or certificate of the University.² The Syndicate may grant permission for more than twenty volumes to be borrowed if they are of the opinion that sufficient reasons have been advanced.

(2) Not more than ten volumes may be borrowed by students who are graduates of any university and who are resident members of Ridley Hall, Westcott House, Westminster College, or Wesley House.

(3) Not more than ten volumes may be borrowed by (a) undergraduates, and (b) Affiliated Students.

(4) Not more than twenty volumes may be borrowed, under such conditions as may from time to time be laid down by the Syndicate, by the following persons if they have been approved by the Syndicate on the recommendation of the Chair of the Faculty Board, Head of the Department, or Head of the College or Approved Society concerned:

(a) graduates of any university who for the time being are engaged in teaching, research, or administration in the University, or in a College or Approved Society, or in an institution connected with the University which has been recognized for this purpose by the General Board in consultation with the Syndicate;

(b) visiting scholars and others who for the time being have been allocated working facilities in a Faculty, Department, College, or Approved Society.

(5) In exceptional circumstances the Syndicate may grant to other persons the privilege of borrowing books under such conditions as they think fit.

6. (a) Any volume borrowed under Regulation 5(1), 5(4), or 5(5) shall be returned not later than eight weeks after the date of borrowing, provided that the Librarian shall have power to demand its return earlier.

(b) Any volume borrowed under Regulation 5(2) or 5(3) shall be returned not later than the fourteenth day after the date of borrowing, provided that the Librarian shall have power to demand its return earlier.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of Regulation 6(b), any volume borrowed under Regulation 5(3) between the Monday and Friday of the last week of either Michaelmas or Lent Full Term may be retained until the first day of the following Full Term, unless the Librarian has demanded its earlier return.

7. Any user of the Library who requires a volume that has been borrowed by another person may give notice to the Librarian that they require the volume. The Librarian shall then notify the borrower that they are required to return the volume to the Library. The borrower shall comply with this requirement within seven days of the date of such notification.

8. Volumes borrowed and returned shall be noted in the Library borrowing records by the Library staff in the presence of the borrowers or their representatives. When loans are renewed online the amendments to the Library borrowing records shall be recorded via the Library catalogue.

9. (a) No volume borrowed from the Library may be taken or sent outside the British Isles except with the written permission of the Syndicate.

(b) No volume borrowed from the Library may be used for commercial purposes except with the written permission of the Syndicate.

10. Any person who fails to return a volume in accordance with the provisions of Regulation 6 shall be liable to a fine. The level of the fines that may be levied under this regulation shall be determined from time to time by the Syndicate, subject to the provisions of Regulation 15.

11. A fine of not more than £175 may be imposed by the Syndicate on any person who removes a book or other item of library material from the Library without following the borrowing procedures laid down by the Syndicate, or who, having borrowed such a book or other item, is unable, without showing good reason, to return it, or who wilfully damages such a book or other item. The imposition of such a fine shall be without prejudice to the University's right to obtain, in addition, compensation for any loss or damage suffered by the University.

12. Manuscripts of special value or importance, other items of great rarity, and materials from collections to which special conditions apply, shall not be borrowed from the Library except with the approval of the Syndicate who shall specify the conditions and the period, which shall not exceed six months, of the loan.

13. Exercises and dissertations which are deposited in the Library by candidates for degrees shall be available for consultation, unless the General Board or other comparable authority determine that a particular exercise or dissertation shall, for a specified period, be available only to the author or to those who have the author's written permission to consult the work. Exercises and dissertations shall not be borrowed.

14. Rules made from time to time by the Syndicate shall be posted within the Library.

Rules.

15. A fine of not more than £175 may be imposed by the Syndicate on any person who wilfully infringes any of these regulations or any rule made by the Syndicate. A person from whom any fine is due that has been imposed under these regulations shall not be admitted to the Library or allowed to borrow books until such fine has been paid.

Penalties for infringement.

The rules made from time to time for the use of each of the affiliated libraries, shall specify the arrangements for the opening and closing of the library, for admission to the library, and for borrowing from the library. Such rules shall be posted within the library concerned.

Libraries.FACULTY, DEPARTMENTAL, AND OTHER LIBRARIES*Application.

The following regulations shall apply to all Faculty and Departmental Libraries except those that are affiliated to the University Library.

Authority responsible.

1. The authority responsible for the Library of a Faculty, Department, or other institution under the supervision of the General Board, shall be the Board, Syndicate, Committee, or other comparable body, provided that the responsibility may be delegated, wholly or in part, by the Faculty Board or other such body to the Head of a Department or other University officer or to a committee. Each authority shall be empowered to do such things in accordance with these regulations as are necessary for the management of the library, and in particular to authorize the purchase of books, provide a catalogue, and defray other expenses, from the funds at their disposal.

Library rules.

2. The authority responsible for a library shall make rules, in accordance with these regulations and subject to the approval of the General Board, for the use of the library, including rules for borrowing if it is decided to permit borrowing; and they shall display in the library a notice of all the rules.

Admission.

3. Unless the General Board on the application of the authority has agreed otherwise, the authority responsible for a library shall admit to it, in addition to those members of the University for whom it is primarily intended, any member of the Regent House or postgraduate registered student wishing to use it for purposes of scholarship or research. Other persons may be admitted at the authority's discretion. Borrowing may also be permitted at the authority's discretion, and may be restricted to such classes of user as the authority may decide.

Acceptance of gifts.

4. The authority responsible for a library shall have power to accept gifts of books and other library material. The authority shall seek the approval of the General Board:

- (a) if acceptance of the gift would involve additional expense falling on general University funds; or
- (b) if any condition is imposed by the donor which would prevent the disposal of the books or other material that are found to be no longer required for the purposes of the library.

Disposal of books, etc.

5. An authority responsible for a library wishing to dispose of any book, pamphlet, or periodical shall be at liberty to do so by sale or otherwise, provided that, before it is disposed of, it shall, unless the General Board agrees otherwise, observe the procedure set out from time to time by the General Board which includes the requirement to offer such item to the Syndics of the University Library, for transfer to that library (including the dependent libraries), and to the authorities responsible for other libraries in the University. Before the authority disposes of any literary, historical, or scientific manuscript, paper, microform material, or other archive, it shall first be offered to the Syndics of the University Library or the Keeper of the University Archives for transfer to that library or to the University Archives as may be appropriate.

6. The authority responsible for a library shall, on first subscribing to any periodical, inform the Periodicals Department of the University Library of the placing of the subscription. The authority shall obtain the approval of the General Board before an existing subscription to a periodical is cancelled.

The Isaac Newton Institute for Mathematical Sciences shall be an institution independent of any Faculty or Department but under the supervision of the General Board, and shall be within the School of the Physical Sciences.

Scientific Steering Committee

1. There shall be a Scientific Steering Committee which, while taking into account its national and international responsibilities and its need for expertise across the mathematical sciences including multidisciplinary applications, shall consist of:

- (a) the Director;
- (b) eleven persons appointed by the General Board after consultation with the Engineering and Physical Sciences Research Council (to represent the views of UK Research and Innovation) and such other bodies as shall be determined from time to time in consultation with the Heads of the Schools of the Physical Sciences, Technology, the Biological Sciences, Clinical Medicine, and the Humanities and Social Sciences (a list of such bodies shall be maintained by the Director of the Institute);
- (c) two persons co-opted at the discretion of the Committee.

The Deputy Director of the Institute and the Scientific Director of the International Centre for Mathematical Sciences shall have the right to attend meetings if they have not been appointed as members.

2. Members in class (b) shall serve for four years from 1 January following their appointment. A co-opted member in class (c) shall serve until 31 December of the year in which they are co-opted or of the year next following, as the Committee shall determine at the time of co-optation.

3. The General Board, in making its appointments to the Committee, shall ensure that there are not normally more than three members from any single institution.

4. The Chair of the Committee shall be appointed by the General Board from among the members in classes (b) or (c). The Chair shall be appointed for a period of not more than three years and shall be eligible for reappointment for a period or periods of not more than three years at a time. The Chair shall not normally be a resident member of the University.

5. The Director or Deputy Director of the Institute shall serve as Secretary of the Committee.

Secretary.

6. The Committee shall meet at least once each year. Six members present at a meeting shall constitute a quorum.

Meetings.

7. The duty of the Committee shall be to advise the Director on all aspects of the scientific work and scientific policy of the Institute.

Duties.

Management Committee

1. Oversight of the management of the Institute shall be the responsibility of a Management Committee, which shall consist of:

- (a) the Director;
- (b) the Deputy Director;
- (c) the Chair of the Scientific Steering Committee;
- (d) the Heads of the Departments of Applied Mathematics and Theoretical Physics and of Pure Mathematics and Mathematical Statistics;
- (e) one person appointed by the General Board, who shall be Chair, provided that the General Board shall have power to appoint as Chair a person who is already a member of the Committee in one of classes (f), (h) and (i);
- (f) the Head of the School of the Physical Sciences or a duly appointed deputy;

Constitution.

Mathematical Sciences.

- (g) one person appointed by the Engineering and Physical Sciences Research Council (to represent the views of UK Research and Innovation);
- (h) five persons appointed by the General Board after consultation with the Council for Mathematical Sciences (to represent the views of the UK mathematical sciences community) and such other bodies as shall be determined from time to time by the Heads of the Schools of the Physical Sciences, Technology, the Biological Sciences, Clinical Medicine, and the Humanities and Social Sciences (a list of such bodies shall be maintained by the Director of the Institute);
- (i) two persons co-opted at the discretion of the Committee.

The Director may nominate one or more members of the administrative staff of the Institute who will attend meetings.

2. Members in classes (e), (g) and (h) shall be appointed in the Michaelmas Term to serve for three years from 1 January following their appointment. A co-opted member in class (i) shall serve until 31 December of the year in which they are co-opted or of the year next following, as the Committee shall determine at the time of co-optation.

3. The General Board, in making its appointments to the Committee, shall ensure that normally at least seven of its members are not resident members of the University.

4. The Deputy Director or a person appointed by the Director shall serve as Secretary of the Committee.

5. The Committee shall normally meet at least once each term. Seven members present at a meeting shall constitute a quorum.

6. Subject to the powers of the Council and the General Board, the duties of the Committee shall be as follows:

- (a) to receive the accounts of the Institute and agree the submission of financial forecasts to the School of the Physical Sciences and the General Board;
- (b) to advise the Director on any aspect of the management of the resources and operation of the Institute;
- (c) to agree, on the advice of the Scientific Steering Committee and the Director, the programme of work of the Institute;
- (d) to ensure that the Institute promotes, as appropriate, an interdisciplinary approach to its academic work, and involvement with non-academic bodies;
- (e) to ensure that the Institute collaborates with other similar bodies at a national or international level;
- (f) to report to other bodies as required.

In fulfilling its duties, the Committee shall have regard to the need to support the Institute's promotion of research excellence in the mathematical sciences.

Staff of the Institute

Director.

1. There shall be a Director of the Institute who shall be the N. M. Rothschild & Sons Professor of Mathematical Sciences.

Duties of Director.

2. Under the general control of the Management Committee the Director shall be the administrative Head of the Institute, and shall be responsible, subject to the advice of the Scientific Steering Committee and the approval of the Management Committee, for the choice of topics for the Institute's programmes.

Deputy Director.

3. There shall be a University office of Deputy Director of the Institute, which may be held concurrently with another University office. Appointments and reappointments to the Deputy Directorship shall be made by the Management Committee. If the office is held concurrently with another University office, appointments and reappointments shall be made for periods of not more than five years at a time, provided that no person may hold the office for a total period exceeding six years.

Duties of Deputy Director.

4. The duties of the Deputy Director shall be to assist the Director in all matters connected with the work of the Institute, to serve as Secretary of the Management Committee, to engage actively in research, and to carry out such teaching duties as may be required by the Head of the Department of Applied Mathematics and Theoretical Physics or of the Department of Pure Mathematics and Mathematical Statistics, as the Director agrees are compatible with the other duties of the office.

Rothschild Visiting Professorships

Mathematical Sciences.

Fund.

1. The sum donated by N. M. Rothschild & Sons shall constitute a fund called the Rothschild Visiting Professorships Fund from which the stipend, travelling expenses, and subsistence allowance of Rothschild Visiting Professors and the travelling expenses and subsistence allowance of Rothschild Distinguished Visiting Fellows shall be paid.

Election and tenure of Visiting Professor.

2. A Rothschild Visiting Professor shall be elected under the authority of Special Ordinance C (vii) B.1(c)(iv) by the General Board on the recommendation of the Management Committee. The tenure of a Rothschild Visiting Professor shall normally be for a period of not more than six months but may, exceptionally, be for a period of not more than one year, and shall be determined by the General Board on the recommendation of the Management Committee on the occasion of each appointment.

3. A Rothschild Distinguished Visiting Fellow shall be appointed by the Management Committee for a period of not more than six months, provided that the Management Committee may, exceptionally, make an appointment for one year.

Distinguished Visiting Fellow.

4. It shall be the duty of a Rothschild Visiting Professor and a Rothschild Distinguished Visiting Fellow to participate in the Institute's research programme.

Duties.

5. The stipend of a Rothschild Visiting Professor shall be determined by the General Board on the recommendation of the Management Committee.

Stipend.

6. A Rothschild Visiting Professor and a Rothschild Distinguished Visiting Fellow shall be required to reside in the University.

Residence.

7. After provision has been made in accordance with Regulations 1 and 5, such further payments may be made from the Fund in support of the work of a Rothschild Visiting Professor and a Rothschild Distinguished Visiting Fellow as may be approved by the Management Committee.

Other expenditure.

Visiting Fellowships

Purpose and definitions.

1. In order to enable scholars from outside Cambridge to take part in and contribute to the work of the Institute, there shall be Visiting Fellowships for persons who have made or are making important contributions to research in mathematical sciences, or who are pursuing advanced work in the subject.

Appointments.

2. Appointments and reappointments to Visiting Fellowships shall be made by the Director of the Institute for periods not exceeding one year at a time.

3. The stipend, if any, of a Visiting Fellow shall be determined by the Director with the approval of the General Board on the occasion of each appointment or reappointment.

Senior Fellowships

1. The Management Committee shall have power, subject to the approval of the General Board, to grant the title of Senior Fellow of the Institute to any person associated with the Institute (other than a member of the staff of the Institute) who has made or is making important contributions to research in mathematics.

2. A person to whom the title of Senior Fellow has been granted shall hold that title for not more than five years at a time. At the end of any such period the title may again be granted for a further period of not more than five years on each occasion.

MELVILLE LABORATORY FOR POLYMER SYNTHESIS

Polymer Synthesis.

Director

1. There shall be a University office of Director of the Melville Laboratory for Polymer Synthesis¹ in the Yusuf Hamied Department of Chemistry.

2. Appointments and reappointments to the office of Director of the Melville Laboratory for Polymer Synthesis shall be made by an Appointments Committee consisting of:

Appointment.

(a) the Vice-Chancellor, or a duly appointed deputy, as Chair;

(b) the Head of the Yusuf Hamied Department of Chemistry;

(c) two persons appointed by the Council of the School of the Physical Sciences;

(d) one person appointed by the Council of the School of Technology;

(e) three persons appointed by the General Board.

¹ This office is an office specified in the Schedules to Special Ordinances C (i) 1 (p. 76) and C (vii) 1 (p. 92).

Polymer
Synthesis.Duties.
Committee of Management.

Members in classes (c), (d), and (e) shall be appointed in the Michaelmas Term of each year of which the number is even to serve for two years from 1 January following their appointment.

3. The duties of the Director shall be to engage in research in polymer synthesis and to manage the Melville Laboratory so as to promote polymer synthesis within the University, under the supervision of a Committee of Management consisting of:

- (a) the Chair of the Council of the School of the Physical Sciences, who shall be Chair of the Committee;
- (b) the Heads of the Departments of Engineering, Chemical Engineering and Biotechnology, Chemistry, Materials Science and Metallurgy, and Physics; provided that each Head may appoint a deputy to attend any meeting of the Committee;
- (c) one member appointed by each of the sponsors of the Melville Laboratory, as defined in the agreement with the University;
- (d) not more than three persons co-opted by the Committee to serve for two years from the date of their co-optation;
- (e) the Director of the Melville Laboratory for Polymer Synthesis, who shall be Secretary of the Committee.

The Committee of Management shall meet at least twice in each academic year.

4. The provisions of Special Ordinance C (vii) A.10 that apply to a Professor shall also apply to the Director of the Melville Laboratory for Polymer Synthesis.

5. The Director shall conform to such conditions of residence as may be determined by the General Board, after consultation with the Committee of Management.

Sainsbury
Laboratory.SAINSBURY LABORATORYConstitution

The Sainsbury Laboratory shall be an institution independent of any Faculty or Department but under the supervision of the General Board, and shall be within the School of the Biological Sciences.

*Management*Board of Management.

1. The Laboratory shall be under the general control of a Board of Management which shall consist of:

- (a) four members appointed by the General Board;
- (b) seven members appointed by the General Board, on the nomination of the Gatsby Charitable Foundation;
- (c) the Director of the Laboratory, ex officio;
- (d) two other senior members of the Laboratory appointed by the General Board on the nomination of the Management Board.

Members in classes (a) and (d) shall be appointed in the Michaelmas Term to serve for four years from 1 January following their appointment. Members in class (b) shall be appointed for such periods as the General Board shall determine. Among the members in classes (a) and (b) shall be no fewer than three scientists working in institutions overseas and one business person with a scientific background.

Condition of membership.

Chair.

Secretary.

Duties of the Board.

2. If any member in classes (a) and (b) misses two consecutive meetings their membership shall cease, unless the cause of the absence has been declared sufficient by the Board of Management.

3. The Management Board shall elect a Chair from among the members in classes (a) and (b), to serve for three years from 1 January following election; the Chair shall be eligible for re-election for a further period of three years.

4. The Administrator of the Laboratory shall serve as Secretary of the Board.

5. Subject to the powers of the Council, the General Board, the Council of the School of the Biological Sciences, and the Faculty Board of Biology, the general duties of the Board shall be:

- (a) to promote research in plant development and plant diversity;
- (b) to oversee the scientific progress of the Laboratory;
- (c) to approve the distribution of funding in support of the Laboratory from the Gatsby Charitable Foundation;

- (d) to prepare an Annual Report on the finances of the Laboratory for submission to the General Board and the Gatsby Charitable Foundation;
 - (e) to oversee the arrangements for the periodic review of the Laboratory, in accordance with agreements between the University and the Gatsby Charitable Foundation;
 - (f) to appoint, or reappoint, the scientific staff of the Laboratory, other than those who hold University offices.
6. The Chair, in consultation with the Director, shall submit an Annual Report on the scientific progress of the Laboratory to the General Board and the Gatsby Charitable Foundation. Annual Report.

Staff of the Laboratory

1. There shall be a University office of Director of the Laboratory which shall be held concurrently Director.
2. The Director shall normally be appointed by the General Board for a term of five years and may be re-appointed for further periods, as determined by the General Board, on the advice of a Committee constituted for the particular occasion, in consultation with the Gatsby Charitable Foundation. Tenure.
3. Subject to the duties of the Management Board, the Director shall be the administrative head of the Laboratory, and shall be responsible to the Management Board for the proper operation and management of the Laboratory and for ensuring the effective carrying out of the Laboratory's purpose and functions, including the direction of research in the Laboratory.
4. There shall be such other University offices in the Laboratory as the University, or the General Board, on the recommendation of the Management Board, may establish from time to time. Appointments to such offices shall be made in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Statutes and Ordinances.
5. The staff of the Laboratory shall conform to such conditions of residence as may be determined by the Management Board, subject to the approval of the General Board. Residence.
6. The duties of the staff of the Laboratory other than the Director, shall be determined by the Management Board subject to the approval of the General Board. Duties of the staff.
7. During any period of absence from duty of the Director, the General Board, on the recommendation of the Management Board, shall have the authority to appoint a person to be Acting Director. A person so appointed shall be recognized as Director of the Laboratory for all purposes. Acting Director.

NOTICE BY THE GENERAL BOARD

UNIVERSITY RESEARCH ETHICS COMMITTEE

1. The General Board has agreed to establish a University Research Ethics Committee which shall consist of:
 - (a) the Chair of the Human Biology Research Ethics Committee;¹
 - (b) the Chair of the Psychology Research Ethics Committee;
 - (c) a member of a Research Ethics Committee run by the Health Research Authority's Research Ethics Service;
 - (d) one person appointed by the General Board who shall be Chair, provided that the General Board shall have power to appoint as Chair a person who is already a member of the Committee in one of classes (a), (b), (e) or (f);
 - (e) two persons appointed by the General Board who shall not be resident members of the University;
 - (f) six persons appointed by the General Board, one each on the nomination of the Councils of the Schools to ensure appropriate representation of areas of research involving human participants or personal data and a breadth of expertise in research integrity matters;
 - (g) two elected officers of the student unions or registered students, one appointed by the Committee on the nomination of the President (Undergraduate), and one on the nomination of the President (Postgraduate), of the University of Cambridge Students' Union;
 - (h) not more than two persons co-opted by the Committee, provided that it shall not be obligatory for the Committee to co-opt any person or persons.
2. The appointment of members in classes (d)–(f) shall be made in the Michaelmas Term for periods of four years from the following 1 January. Members shall be eligible for reappointment. Co-opted members shall serve until 31 December of the year in which they are co-opted or of the following year, as the Committee shall determine at the time of their co-optation. The Pro-Vice-Chancellor (Research), the Academic Secretary, the Director of the Research Services Division, and the Director of Human Resources shall have the right to attend meetings of the Committee. The Secretary of the Committee shall be the Academic Secretary or a duly appointed deputy.

3. Six members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum. The Committee shall:

- (i) devise a University policy for approval by the General Board for the consideration and approval of research projects involving human participants or personal data, including the establishment of specialist sub-committees, where appropriate, to cover specific areas;
- (ii) monitor the implementation of this policy, establish associated procedures, and recommend to the Board any changes that are considered necessary in the light of experience;
- (iii) consider and decide on any application for approval of research involving human participation or personal data which is referred to the Committee by one of its sub-committees or by any other relevant body;
- (iv) establish, implement, and keep under review a procedure for considering appeals against decisions made by sub-committees to withhold, suspend or withdraw approval of a research project which it considers to contravene University policies or procedures on research involving human participants or personal data;
- (v) consider and advise on training provision for those involved in considering applications for research projects involving human participants or personal data and for those undertaking such research;
- (vi) receive and consider annual reports from the ethics subject sub-committees;
- (vii) report annually to the General Board on (i)–(v) above;
- (viii) advise the Pro-Vice-Chancellor (Research) on the development and implementation of policy and procedures related to research integrity.
